

Speech for SAMNET School Graduation Ceremony

By Agness Bwalya Nkhata

Good morning, parents, teachers, children, and all our guests,

I am so happy and honored to be here today as the guest of honor for this special occasion. Graduation is a wonderful time to celebrate the achievements of our children and to look forward to the bright future that lies ahead for each one of them.

Today, we are gathered to honor the hard work, growth, and success of our graduates. Whether they are completing nursery or primary school, this is a big milestone in their lives. It shows us how much they have learned, how far they have come, and how ready they are for the next chapter of their education.

Message to the Graduates

To our dear graduates,

- ❖ Congratulations! You have worked hard, listened to your teachers, and learned many new things.
- ❖ You have made your families and teachers very proud today.
- ❖ This is just the beginning of your journey. As you move forward to the next stage Dream Big: You can become anything you want, a doctor, a teacher, an engineer, or even a head teacher like me!

Simple Advice for You

Let me share a few simple lessons that will help you as you grow:

- ❖ Always Listen and Learn: Pay attention to your teachers and parents. They are here to guide you.

- ❖ Be Kind and Respectful: Treat everyone nicely, share with others, and help those in need.
- ❖ Believe in Yourself: You can do great things if you try your best and never give up.
- ❖ Enjoy Learning: Learning is fun. Ask questions, try new things, and always be curious.

Thank You to Teachers and Parents

To the teachers, thank you for your dedication and love for these children. You have done a wonderful job shaping their minds and hearts.

To the parents and guardians, this is your proud moment too. Your support and encouragement have been so important for your children's success. Thank you for always being there for them.

Closing Words

To our graduates, this is your special day. We are so proud of you and excited for what you will achieve in the future. Keep working hard, keep being kind, and always dream big.

Congratulations to all of you! May God bless you and your families. Thank you!
